PROFILE

Emerging Web Developer from Universidad de Los Andes (Bogotá, Colombia), nearing the pinnacle of my Systems Engineering journey. Spearheaded hands-on workshops in Data Structures and Algorithms and currently driving tech innovations as a key player in the 'Todos a la U' software development brigade. Proficient in deploying MERN stack, Python, and Java to build scalable solutions. Programming isn't just a passion—it's my life's rhythm! A swift tech adapter and a fervent advocate for knowledge dissemination. Ready to architect the next big digital marvel with you!

EMPLOYMENT HISTORY

Lead Web Development Facilitator at 'Todos a la U' at Universidad de Los Andes, Bogotá
May 2023 — August 2023

Engaged in the pivotal crew behind the groundbreaking 'Todos a la U' software course—a collaborative venture between Universidad de los Andes and Bogota's major's office—designed to empower non-university individuals with elite tech skills.
